This seminar was so valuable for me! I left with a lot of good ideas I could implement immediately with my kids. It also caused me to be more committed to my responsibility to prepare my children well for their financial futures.

“This was just excellent! The section on how to implement allowances for our kids was incredibly helpful.”

“All our children are grown but we hope to come along side our kids and help them teach these principles to our grandkids.”

“I loved the personal stories and wise parenting techniques.”

“I appreciated the biblical perspective, the practical tips, how to do a budget with my kids and the personal touch. Thank you for showing me areas where I need to change my approach”

“So commit yourselves completely to the words of God ... Teach them to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are away on a journey, when you are lying down and when you are getting up again.”

Even the best of parents can sometimes lack a little confidence in knowing how to prepare their kids for success in life ... especially when it comes to the topic of money and finances. We work hard to provide for their needs and to give them every advantage, but we don't always feel up to the task of teaching our kids to handle money wisely.

But God has given us the responsibility of preparing our kids to survive and thrive in a challenging world by training them to make wise decisions in an increasingly hostile materialistic culture.
