What are examples of empty religion in general?

Specifically, where do I exhibit empty religion?

How am I guilty of looking at other peoples sin differently that I look at my own sin?

According to "James 5:16 Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working." we should be confessing to one another. What should this look like in our society today? (Moderator suggestion: A life group is a good place to be transparent; but sometimes the topics would be inappropriate in a mixed setting. We should, however, find a trusted confidant within a group like this. You will be amazed at how common our sin is. For some reason, we think we are the only one falling into a sin trap.)
